Procedures for Lending Funds to Other parties

Article 1

The Company shall follow the Procedures set forth below for lending funds to other parties. Any other matters not set forth in the Procedures shall be dealt with in accordance with the applicable laws, rules, and regulations.

Article 2

The party to whom the Company may lend its funds shall be limited to:

- 1 Companies or firms having business relationship with the Company.
- 2 Companies or firms in need of funds for a short-term period; Fund-lending to companies which need funds for a short-term period shall be limited to companies or firms in which the Company holds or be held 50 percent or more of the shares. The aforementioned "short-term period" shall mean the period of one year or business operation, whichever is longer. Loan amount shall mean the aggregate fund-lending balance of the Company for a short-term period.

Article 3

The total loan amount to others shall be varied according to the situations as follows.

1. The total amount for lending to a company/firm having business relationship with the Company shall not exceed the 40% of the net worth of the Company. The amount lent to a single recipient may not exceed the amount of the business transacted between the two parties in the most recent year. The transaction amount shall mean the sales or purchasing amount between the parties, whichever is higher. For transaction except sales and purchasing, a mutual agreement shall be signed beforehand and the total amount lent shall not exceed the definition of the agreement.
2. The total amount for lending to a company/firm for funding for a short-term period shall not exceed 40% of the net worth of the Company. The amount lent to a single recipient shall not exceed the 40% of the net worth of the Company.

Inter-company loans of funds between overseas companies in which the Company holds, directly or indirectly, 100% of the voting shares are neither subject to the restriction in the preceding paragraph, section 2, nor subject to the restriction of capital loan and term of one year as set forth in Article 4, paragraph 1. However, capital loan limits and terms are still required to be described in its internal operation procedure.

Article 4

The term of each loan extended by the Company shall not exceed one year from the loan origination date. The interest rate shall be determined on the basis of the Company's funding, but in no event shall it be higher than the Company's highest short-term bank borrowing rate at the time of lending. The interests shall be calculated on a daily basis. Interest payment period and method are based on the mutual agreement.

With special circumstance and the approval of Board of Directors, the term of loan may be extended depending on its actual situation. Same applied to 100% holding foreign subsidiary of the Company.
