Rules for Election of Directors

Article 1

Unless otherwise provided in the Company Law or the Articles of Incorporation of this Company, the independent and non-independent directors of this Company shall be elected in accordance with the rules specified herein.

Article 2

Election of directors of this Company shall be held at the shareholders' meeting. The board of directors shall prepare ballots and note the number of voting rights.

Article 3

The election of directors shall adopt a disclosed cumulative voting method. Each share represents a weighted number of voting rights equivalent to the number of directors to be elected; such voting rights may be exercised to collectively elect a single candidate or may be distributed among several candidates. Those persons with the greatest numbers of ballots representing voting rights shall be elected as director in order of number of ballots received. Each voter will be identified by his/her attendance card number as printed on his/her ballot.

Article 4

This Company's directors shall be elected by adopting the candidate nomination system specified in Article 192-1 of the ROC Company Law.

Article 5

In the election of directors of this Company, independent directors and non-independent directors should be elected from the same election with the effective seats calculated specifically. Candidates who acquire more votes should individually win the seats of directors. If two or more persons acquire the same number of votes and the number of such persons exceeds the specified seats available, such persons acquiring the same votes shall draw lots to decide who should win the seats available, and the Chairman shall draw lots on behalf of the candidate who is not present.

Article 6

The Board of Directors shall prepare ballots and distribute one ballot to each shareholder identified by his/her attendance card number. Each ballot shall contain the votes that the voter is entitled to in the election.

Article 7

At the beginning of the election, the Chairman shall appoint several persons each to check and record the ballots. The persons to check the ballots may be appointed from among the shareholders present.

Article 8

The ballot box used for voting shall be prepared by this Company and checked in public by the person to check the ballots before voting.

Article 9

If the candidate is a shareholder of this Company, voters shall fill in the "candidate" column the candidate's name and shareholder's number. If the candidate is not a shareholder of this Company, voters shall fill in the "candidate" column the candidate's name and the candidate's ID number. If the candidate is a government agency or a legal entity, the full name of the government agency or the legal entity or the name(s) of their representative(s) should be filled in the column. If there are several representatives, each of the representatives' names must be filled in.

Article 10

Ballots shall be deemed void under the following conditions:

1. Ballots not prepared by the Board of Directors;
2. The number of candidates filled in the ballot exceeding the number of the seats to be elected.
3. Ballots with other written characters or symbols in addition to candidate's name, shareholder's number (ID number);
4. The handwriting on the ballots is too illegible to be identified or is altered;
5. If the candidate is a shareholder of this Company, the name or shareholder's number of the candidate filled in the ballot inconsistent with the shareholders' register. If the candidate is not a shareholder of this Company, the name or ID number of the candidate filled in the ballot is incorrect;
6. Ballots without being filled in candidate's name or shareholder's number (ID number).

Article 11

The ballots should be calculated during the meeting right after the vote casting and the results of the election should be announced by the Chairman at the meeting.
