

Sustainable Development

In accordance with the principle of ethical corporate management, Sino-American Silicon Products Inc. has been making efforts in creating surroundings for corporate value and sustainable development with the concept to co-share benefits with the society. For the purpose of making continuous value to share with our customers, investors, employees, suppliers, the community and the government, the Company specifically formulates the Corporate Social Responsibility Policy as follows so as to implement the corporate social responsibility continuously as well as our commitment and determination to sustainable development.

- ◎ Maintain high competitiveness to create shared value
- ◎ Implement sound corporate management
- ◎ Stick to ethical management to realize the commitment of sustainable development
- ◎ Develop more clean energy for world citizenship implementation
- ◎ Participate in activity for public welfare positively to develop the social value of the corporate
- ◎ Increase employees' benefits by providing safe and healthful workplace

Chairman: M.K. Lu

President: Doris Hsu

Date: July 1st, 2016